September 12, 2008

BY Odenda Lumumba, KLA

Key Objectives

- All Citizens, particularly the poor getting opportunity to access & beneficially occupy & use land
- An economically, socially equitable & environmentally sustainable allocation & use of land
- Efficient, effective & economical operation of land market

Identified Critical Problems

- Constitutional Issues
- Land Tenure Issues
- Land Use Management Issues
- Land Administration Issues
- Land Issues Requiring Special Intervention
- Institutional Framework & Implementation Issues

Anticipated Outputs of DNLP

- Proper Land Administration & Management System
- Land Policy for Sustainable Growth, Investment & Reduction of Poverty
- Mechanism for gender equity in land allocation & ownership
- A framework for resolution of historical & contemporary land injustices

In Conclusion

- A draft National Land Policy well anchored in the new constitutional dispensation awaiting Cabinet & Parliament endorsement & implementation
- Draft NLP is a broad direction to durable solution to Kenya's land question
